01

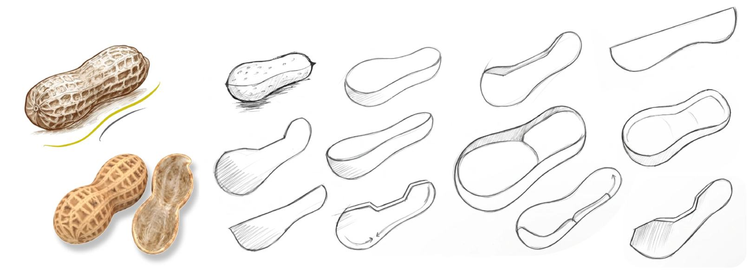

Kosha

"Form Embraces Function"

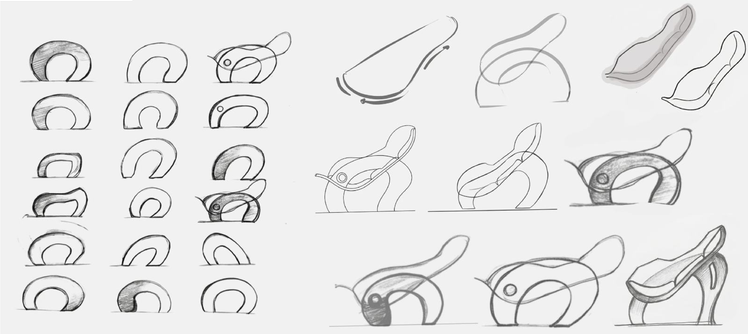

Project Brief

To design a bioinspired relaxing chair system that draws morphological inspiration from Peanut shell geometry while integrating ergonomic support, premium material craftsmanship, and sculptural aesthetics into a cohesive furniture solution, thereby elevating relaxation spaces with functional art that balances comfort, durability, and contemporary luxury appeal.

Ideation

Final Concept

